8. Do not entertain or make fun of the villagers. Always ask the villager before taking their photograph.
9. Smoking, Alcohol, Drugs, Narcotics and any kind of Intoxication, Firearms and gambling is strictly prohibited. If you found indulging in such activities SVGA will keep you in blacklist in future you will not be allowed to trek with SVGA.
10. In case of any problem or injury you face while trekking do not hesitate to inform the leaders or co-leaders.
11. Do keep in mind that this is trek and not picnic as a minor mistake can cause harm to the fellow trekkers.
12. Do not divert from the trek chain or trek lines unless and until permitted by leaders. Do not leave Trek place or journey in between without permission of leaders.
13. Rules and Regulation should be strictly followed by the participants, if any participant dis obeys or misbehaves, he/she will be debarred from the programme.
14. The committee members/leaders/organisers/office bearer will have the right to change the programme schedule in unavoidable circumstances without any intimation.
15. The decision of the organizer/leader/office bearer will be final and binding to all.
16. The Committee will have the right to cancel the application without an reply or information.

Always try to keep the mountains clean because we want our next generation to see the beauty which we experience right now.

PATH is more important than Destination.

Safety Matter : Mountain will always be there, if you are there.
